BREEGE CONNOLLY

Well done to Breege Connolly, Monien who represented Ireland, Leitrim and Kinlough in the Womens' Marathon at the Rio Olympics on Sunday last. She did herself and everyone proud. So few achieve such an honour during their life time, and often those who do don't succeed in finishing the race because of injury or cramp especially in extreme conditions of heat as on last Sunday in Rio. To finish the 26.2 mile marathon among the top half of the 156 field of world top athletes in a time of 2 hours, 44 minutes and 41 seconds added to Breege's own joy and the joy of family and all of us.
