BREEGE CONNOLLY: Wishes to express her sincere thanks to all from the community of Kinlough and parishes of Tullaghan, Glenade and Ballinrillick for the support and kindness she received as she prepared for and headed off to Rio Olympics. It was a truly wonderful experience that was made all the more special because of the kindness and goodness of everyone. Becoming an Olympian was a privilege that was made so much easier because of the support of family, friends and the great community of Kinlough and surrounding parishes. It was a complete honour to represent all of you on the streets of Rio. Many thanks.
