BISHOP'S LETTER & PASTORAL MESSAGE ON 8TH AMENDMENT: Last week we hadn't enough copies to meet demand. Copies will be available this weekend again at the end of masses.

PARISH FINANCES: For a number of years now Parish Finance Committees have been mandatory in accordance with Canon Law. We thank the members of our Parish Finance Committee for their work. Part of their duty is to oversee that all envelope collections are credited to the church whose name the envelope bears. This applies to envelopes dropped into churches outside our parish as well as those handed into our own four churches in the parish. Where the necessary requirements are met the parish can claim a 31 per cent tax refund on these envelope donations. Each year our Diocesan Accountant spends a day in our parish and conducts a check that these procedures are properly complied with. This year she intends visiting us in June. A difficulty arises if an outside parish doesn't follow proper procedures. It is understandable that a parishioner would be aggrieved if his/her envelope contribution were to be misappropriated. It is a concern too for our Parish Finance Committee which has the responsibility of overseeing such financial matters on behalf of the people of the parish.

TAX REFUND FORMS: If you haven't already done so please hand in this Form where relevant. If you have a PPS Number & have ever paid Tax you are eligible even if you are retired. To be eligible the minimum donation must be €250.

CIRIS OF DEMOCRACY IN IRELAND TOUR: Friday 23rd March at 7 p.m. Lakeside Manor, Dublin Road, Virginia. John Waters and Fr. Marcel Guarnizo will address the nature of democracy, the illegality of voting away fundamental human rights and how to uphold constitutional protections of innocent human life.

ST. AIDAN'S NS BALLINTRILICK: Open Evening in the school on Thursday 15th March at 6.30 p.m. Future enrolments welcome. Information also on after school service.

HAPPY MOTHER'S DAY THIS SUNDAY
